

Model based Teaching:

- Faculty members use models whenever to explain the students to make the students understand the concepts easily. This motivates the students to like the subject and learn easily.

